ORAL ORDER

5 11-01-2017

Heard.

Learned counsel appearing for the Bihar State Sugar Corporation Ltd. Patna submits that the dues of the petitioner has already been sanctioned, which is evident from perusal of Annexure-A to the show cause filed on behalf of opposite party no. 3 and the same has already been sent to District Magistrate, who is responsible for making payment to the petitioner.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the dues of the petitioner's husband has been calculated by the corporation treating him as seasonal worker whereas petitioner's husband was regular employee and he was entitled to get his dues as regular employee grades but the same has not been done by the corporation.

In my view, if the petitioner is aggrieved by the calculation of the corporation, she may approach the appropriate forum for redressing her grievance as the same cannot be looked into this contempt matter.

Accordingly, this contempt petition stands disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to raise her grievance before the appropriate forum in respect of Annexure-C to the show cause filed on behalf of the opposite party no. 3.
