CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 10-10-2017

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned counsel representing the opposite party no.2.

Learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 are unanimous in their submissions that the parties have settled their dispute outside the Court and they are happily living together. They are also ready to participate in the court below for final disposal of the case itself.

This being the position, this Court, instead of interfering with the impugned order, directs the learned court below to proceed with the matter and because it arises out of a matrimonial discord which has now been settled between the parties it would be in the fitness of the things that on appearance of the parties, the case should be taken to a logical end in the interest of justice.

The application is disposed of with the observations and directions made above.
