CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
ORAL JUDGMENT
Date: 20-03-2017

Considering the fact that the respondents have settled the claims of the petitioner by paying arrears of salary and pension as also other benefits like group insurance and provisional pension etc, no case for initiating a proceeding of contempt is made out. If the petitioner has any grievance still subsisting with regard to payment of group insurance and other monetary benefits to which he is entitled, he may claim the same in accordance with law by resorting to such proceedings as contemplated under law.
