ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 16-10-2017

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned app for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in fact the Block Development Officer has submitted a report that the work of scheme no. 7/95-96 which was allotted to the petitioner has already been completed.

This court has perused the copy of the first information report and other materials placed by the petitioner before this court. The impugned order dated

21.02.2014 specifically states that this petitioner is a named accused and, in course of investigation police, has found materials against him to charge-sheet, and, accordingly, after submission of charge-sheet cognizance was taken in the matter on 21.06.2004 under Section 420 and 409 of the Indian Penal Code. The court found sufficient materials to frame charges against the petitioner.

The so-called report of the Block Development Officer is also not available on the record, moreover, it is a case in which cognizance was taken in the year 2004, this court is not inclined to interfere with the order rejecting the application of the petitioner under Section 239 Cr.P.C.
