punishable under Sections 341, 323, 324, 325, 307, 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that allegation against the petitioner that he assaulted one Hasmati Begum by means of Karda (a sharp cutting weapon), which caused injury on the head of said Kasmati Begum and further assaulted on one Tajir, whose injury was found to be simple in nature. It has further been submitted that there case and counter case between the parties in the backdrop of land dispute. Father of the petitioner has also received grievous injury.

Learned counsel for the State and learned counsel for the Having heard both sides, in view of the facts and circumstances of the case and also in view that injuries caused to the injured from the assault of petitioner, was found to be grievous in nature, as such, in my opinion, this is not a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail, let petitioner surrender before the court below and pray for regular bail and if any such application is filed, the court below after considering the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner and also after considering the materials available on record, shall pass an appropriate order, without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of.
