Allegation against the petitioner is of assault by means of iron rod to the informant.

However, the injury is on the chick of the informant and cannot be dangerous to life.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegation, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner, privilege of anticipatory bail. It is accordingly rejected.

Let petitioner surrender before the court below and make prayer for regular bail and if any such application is filed, the court below after considering the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner and after verifying the nature of injury inflicted on the informant and also considering the age of petitioner shall pass an appropriate order, if possible on the same day, without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
