CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MUNGESHWAR
SAHOO
ORAL ORDER

6 09-08-2017 The learned counsel, Mr. Shailendra Kumar Jha appearing on behalf of the husband-respondent No.2 categorically in open court submitted that he is ready to keep the petitioner Rita Singh as his wife with full dignity and, therefore, the order passed by the court below is unwarranted. The learned counsel further submitted that he is withdrawing the amendment application whereby the application for amendment seeking decree for divorce was sought by the husband-respondent.

In view of the concession given by the learned counsel for the petitioner that he is withdrawing the amendment application itself and since the petitioner is also ready to stay with the husband-respondent No.2, the impugned order is set aside and both the parties are directed to approach the court below and file a compromise application stating that both are now residing together so that the matrimonial proceeding under Section 9 of the Hindu

Marriage Act, 1955 shall be disposed of within a reasonable period.

In view of the submission of the learned counsel for the parties, this writ application is allowed and impugned order is set aside. Both the parties are directed to approach the court below and the court below shall pass appropriate order as submitted by the parties since both the parties are agreed to reside together.
