The petitioners are accused in connection with Chandramandih P.S. Case No. 28 of 2016, registered under Section 302, 328 and 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is that before 16 years, the marriage of the sister of the informant was performed with one Pakodi Sah and after the marriage, the sister of the informant was being tortured for demand of dowry by her husband and other in-laws and due to that reasons, sister of the informant lodged Chandramandih P.S. returned to her matrimonial house and in spite of that she was being tortured and her husband performed his re-marriage with Rashmi Devi. On 24.04.2016, in the evening, the informant received information regarding death of his sister. Then he went to the sasural of her sister and found that his sister has been died after eating poisonous food. Thereafter, informant raised suspicion about administering the poison to her sister by her husband and the other in-laws.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are brother of the husband of the deceased and used to reside separately with the deceased and her husband. Further submission is that petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case and they are in custody since 11.11.2016.
