ORAL ORDER

3 21-08-2017 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in N.H. Bangra
P.S. case No. 17 of 2017 for the offences punishable under Section 324, 354, 379 and other Sections of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant named the petitioner along with other accused persons and alleged that they all entered into her house and on the order of Amina Khatoon petitioner and others brutally assaulted her and her daughters.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is counter version being N.H. Bangra P.S. case No. 18 of 2017. The petitioner is lawyer of Amina Khatoon and that is why he has falsely been implicated in the case. The supervisory authority did not find the case true against the petitioner but it appears from perusal of the case diary that the informant and other witnesses have very categorically stated that petitioner also assaulted the daughters of the informant.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
