ORAL ORDER

4 11-08-2017 Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor representing the State of Bihar.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Complaint Case No. 472 of 2014, disclosing offence under Section 498A and 494 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is the husband of the complainant. The matrimonial discord appears to be the root cause of filing of the complaint petition.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that he is ready to keep the Opposite Party No. 2 with full love and dignity.

There is no reason for this Court to feel that if granted anticipatory bail, the petitioner shall flee from the course of trial.

Considering the nature of accusation and submission advanced on behalf of the petitioner, this application is allowed.

Let the petitioner, Ram Lal Ram, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rosera, Samastipur, in connection with Complaint Case No. 472 of 2014, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the Court, as and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court below on two consecutive occasions, his bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
