learned counsel for the State.

In this case, the petitioners are seeking anticipatory bail in connection with Uphara P.S. Case No.6 of 2017, registered for the offence punishable under Section 304(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the F.I.R. the husband of the victim has gone for selection in the Army, when he returned he informed the victim that unless Rs.3,00,000/- is paid, there is no question of his selection and asked her to say his father to manage the aforesaid amount for the purposes of getting the appointment. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are not in any manner connected with the husband of the victim and there is no any allegation that they are involved directly in commission of any crime. He further submits that the husband of the victim is in jail.

Learned counsel for the informant has tried to show that the petitioners were also party to the conspiracy that led to murder of the victim.

Looking to the nature of allegation and the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above-named petitioners be released on anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Aurangabad, in connection with Uphara P.S.
