ORAL ORDER

[illegible]

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Dumariyaghat P.S. Case No. 96 of 2016, registered under Sections 414, 406 & 420/34 of the Indian Penal Code, pending in the court of the Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate-I, Motihari, East Champaran.

The accusation is that the informant being the Officer-in-Charge of Dumariyaghat Police Station came to know that some persons are engaged in cheating the public under the scheme of doubling the currency notes then he along with other Police personnel reached near Dumariyaghat, where in course of checking of the vehicle, one silver colour I.10 Car was stopped, from which three persons were caught hold by the Police, but one person succeeded to flee away. On search, one bundle of currency notes was recovered, in which blank papers were found between the original currency notes. The apprehended persons disclosed the name of the petitioner, as their associate, who succeeded to flee away from the place of occurrence.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was not apprehended on the spot, rather, his name has been disclosed by the persons, who are said to be apprehended by the Police personal on the spot. The co-accused, who had been apprehended on the spot, has been granted regular bail by this Court.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation against the petitioner, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, his prayer for grant of anticipatory bail stands rejected. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial Court within four weeks and pray for regular bail, which would be considered by the trial Court in accordance with law without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
