ORAL ORDER

3 01-07-2017 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the State.

This is a petition for grant of anticipatory bail for offence under Sections 363 and 366A/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

For land dispute, allegation in the first information report is that the petitioners kidnapped to Anjali Kumari, the daughter of the informant.

The victim-girl, in her statement under Section 164 of the Criminal Procedure Code, vide Annexure 2, has supported the allegation of abduction by saying that when she was returning from the school, petitioner, Lalwati Devi, asked her to accompany along with her to the house. In the meantime, three sons of Lalwati Devi, including the petitioner, Krishna Sahni, came on motorcycle and forcefully kidnapped her. They kept the victim for three days in a village and, thereafter, when Mahesh Sahni was carrying her on a cycle the police saw and intercepted.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that the parties have filed a compromise petition. The matter may be of love affairs. More over, kidnapping simplicitor is a bailable offence and no further allegation has been leveled by the victim.

Considering the entire facts, aforesaid, the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender, within four weeks from the date of receipt of this order, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.20,000/- (rupees twenty thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each in connection with Madhuban, P.S.
