CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL ORDER

6 18-10-2017

Having heard learned counsel for the parties, it is directed that the statutory review application filed by the applicant should be heard by the Statutory Authority and disposed of, in accordance with law within a reasonable period and brought to its logical conclusion.

In view of the aforesaid, for the present, without initiating action for contempt, this application is disposed of expecting the respondent Statutory Authority and the Provident

Fund organization to decide the review application at an earlier day.
