CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHWANI KUMAR SINGH

ORAL ORDER

7 02-02-2017

Learned counsel for the petitioners, in these three writ applications, submitted that they are not pressing the prayer in respect of payment of salary and other legal dues of the respective petitioners as those are not the subject mater assigned to this Bench.

In that view of the matter, this Court is not expressing any opinion on their claim of salary or other legal dues which they may claim by filing another appropriate writ application before this Court.

So far as the claim of the respective petitioners in respect of payment of leave encashment and gratuity is concerned, it is admitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that their grievances have already been redressed.

In that view of the matter, the writ applications are disposed of.
