CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL ORDER

2 23-05-2017

From the Show Cause filed by the University it is seen that the direction has been complied with by the University as per the requirement of law. Even though applicant disputes the manner in which the consideration is made, the said dispute cannot be looked into in this contempt proceeding once the University has initiated the process and completed.

In case the petitioners feel that the process has not been completed in accordance with the requirement of law or the scheme laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the petitioners may challenge the same afresh in accordance with law. The manner in which the process has been completed cannot be further scrutinized in this contempt application as the only direction in the writ petition was to consider the case and take a decision.

Accordingly these contempt applications are disposed of with the liberty to the petitioners to challenge the process, as has been done and completed by the university, afresh in accordance with law.
