CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR
UPADHYAY
ORAL ORDER

2 23-06-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioners highlights the technical point in the order of taking cognizance, but he ultimately concedes that there is case and counter case by both sides and they have sustained injuries.

In view of the above fact, the technical point in the order may not help the petitioners. Ultimately, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners and the informant are the neighbours and there is possibility of compromise between the parties and he will advise his client to explore the possibility of compromise between them.

Learned counsel for the petitioners fairly submits that he would approach the informant of the case with the proposal to settle their controversy outside the Court and enter into the compromise in both the cases i.e. case and counter case.

In the aforesaid backdrop of the fact, learned counsel for the petitioners is permitted to withdraw this application.

It is expected that if such compromise application is filed in the court below, the court below will consider such compromise application pragmatically for settlement of the dispute between the parties instead of going into the technicality of law.

With the above observation, this application is disposed of.
