Allegation against the appellants is that they have assaulted the informant and others and also snatched a chain worth Rs. 30,000/- from his wife. Further allegation is that on 20.02.2017, they threatened the informant and abused him by taking his caste name.

Submission of the learned counsel for the appellants

there is delay in lodging the case and furthermore though it is alleged that they have been assaulted, but no injury has been found to show that it has been received by the informant and others. It has further been submitted that appellant nos. 4 to 6 are lady and there is no specific allegation against them.

Heard learned Special Public Prosecutor also

Having heard both sides and in view of the allegation of abusing by taking the caste name of the informant, I am not inclined to grant bail to the appellants.

Let the appellants surrender and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the Special Court on the basis of the submission as made above and especially that appellant nos. 4 to 6 are lady and appellant nos. 4 to 5 are students and considering this aspect of the matter, the Special Court will dispose of the prayer for bail of the appellants, if possible on the same day, with being prejudiced by the order of this Court.

Accordingly, this appeal is disposed of.
