ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 12-07-2017

Heard.

2. This is an application under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. praying therein to quash the order dated 11.02.2014 passed by CJM, Patna in Kotwali P.S.Case No.753 of 2013.

3. On going through the impugned order as well as documents available on record, I find that the above case was registered on the written report submitted to SHO of Kotwali P.S. where the informant has alleged that the petitioners are tenant of his father-in-law. These petitioners usually visit nears his balcony without cloth and utter filthy language seeing the female members of his family. The matter was enquired by the police who submitted chargesheet against the petitioners for the offence under Sections 509 and 354/34 of the IPC and the Magistrate after going through the material available on record has rightly taken cognizance against the petitioners.

4. In view of the above facts, I do not find any illegality requiring any interference in the impugned order. Accordingly, this criminal miscellaneous application is dismissed.
