The accusation is that petitioner along with his wife and mother came at the door of the informant Sima Devi and started to abuse, when informant made protest then at the instigation of Meena Devi, Mira Devi, wife of the petitioner laid her on the ground by her hair and petitioner caused injury at the head of the informant through iron rod. In the meanwhile, Mira

Devi snatched her golden chain worth of Rs. 45,000/-, thereafter, she was admitted in the P.H.C. for treatment.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner and informant are agnates and due to land dispute he has been falsely implicated in this case.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation against the petitioner, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, his prayer for grant of anticipatory bail stands rejected. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial Court within four weeks and pray for regular bail, which would be considered by the trial Court in accordance with law without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
