CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SHIVAJI PANDEY

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 16-01-2017

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and counsel for the State.

In this case, the petitioners are seeking initiation of contempt proceeding in connection with non/wrong implementation of the order dated 12.08.2010 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 7714 of 2012 which was disposed of by this Court with a direction to hold an enquiry and arrive to a finding to the status of appointment and their continuation. It will be relevant to quote relevant portion of the order which reads as follows:-

"In the opinion of this Court, the issue of payment of salary has two clear component namely, payment of arrears and current salary. The arrears of salary for the period the petitioners or some of them have continued in service has to be adjudicated and decided by the authority in the light of the report of their working and/or entitlement. There could be no a blanket stay for payment of salary of the persons whose service were not even terminated. The other aspect which would really make the case of the petitioners at least worth consideration is that they had admittedly received payment of salary for the interregnum period from the funds of the State Government and thus it would not be possible to hold that they would become disentitled for payment of salary either for the earlier period or the later period unless their services were never recognized by the authorities. All these aspects therefore have to be looked into by the Director Indigenous Medicine, who upon receipt of individual representation by the petitioners enclosing the proof of their working would take a decision for payment of salary for the remaining period for which this writ petition has been pressed by the petitioners.

Such decision however must be taken by the Director, Indigenous Medicine within a period of three months from the date of receipt of representation of the petitioners along with a copy of this order and necessary payment, if any, be also made to them in next three months."

In view of the aforesaid direction, the respondent authority has passed an order adverse to the interest of the present petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the order is not in letter and spirit and is de hors to the fact and law of the case but, the question is that the substantive matter can only be looked into in the proper proceeding, not in the contempt proceeding.

In that view of the matter, the petitioner, if so advised, may challenge the final order passed against him in a proper proceeding.

With the aforementioned observation, this application is disposed of.
