CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 29-03-2017

Considering the fact that the State of Bihar in the Water Resources Department through its competent authority has passed an order on 31.12.2012, now it is for the State of Jharkhand from where the petitioner retired to settle his claim and decide the representation in accordance with the order passed on 31.12.2012 by the Government of Bihar as the State of Jharkhand was not a party in the original writ petition being CWJC No.255 of 2001 and as the State of Bihar as a party thereof has decided the claim of the writ petitioner vide Annexure-B to the show cause, now the petitioner has to take recourse to the remedy of getting the order passed by the State of Bihar executed through the authorities at Jharkhand, who are now responsible to implement the order passed on 31.12.2012. The petitioner is granted liberty to initiate proceedings before a Court of competent jurisdiction for getting the order dated 31.12.2012 (Annexure-B) executed or implemented in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid observations, the application stands disposed of.
