CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 10-08-2017

Heard counsel for the petitioner and counsel for the respondents.

Since there is a serious dispute whether the petitioner was actually legally married second wife of the erstwhile employee, namely, Ramanuj Paswan because the progenies of the erstwhile employee are themselves seriously contesting the claim of the petitioner about her status, the Court is not willing to give any direction upon the respondents to settle the post retiral dues or making payment of authorized dues including the family pension in her favour. She has to take recourse to long route of getting a declaration from a civil court of competent jurisdiction before the same can accrue in her favour.

In view of the above, writ application is dismissed with liberty as above.
