ORAL ORDER

2 23-02-2017

This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail for offences punishable under Sections 302, 201, 34 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that they are ladies and they are not directly related with the family affairs of the husband of the deceased. One accused person has already been acquitted after trial. It has also been submitted that as they are illiterates, they could not understand the seriousness of appearing before the court and, as such, they have not appeared.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Considering the aforesaid submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioners, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, the same is rejected.

However, petitioners are directed to surrender in the court below, i.e., learned Addl. Sessions Judge-V, Madhubani, in connection with S.T. no. 234 of 2014 arising out of Benipatti P. S Case no. 43 of 2014 and make prayer for regular bail which will be considered in view of the fact that one co-accused has been acquitted and he will pass an appropriate order without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.

The present application stands disposed of.
