ORAL ORDER

2 03-10-2017 Learned counsel, appearing on behalf of the petitioner, states that it was of sheer inadvertence that two extra copies of this application could not be filed at the time of filing of the application, rather the additional copies, which have been filed, are of different case. He has filed two extra copies of the present application in course of the day. Let them be accepted and placed in records.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the informant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor representing the State of Bihar.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Parsa Bazar P.S. Case No. 229 of 2016, disclosing offences under Sections 448, 504, 341, 323, 324, 325, 326, 307 and 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Referring to the First Information Report, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that surprisingly no reason has been assigned in the First Information Report leading to the said occurrence. Allegedly, the accused persons came to the informant and started assaulting the females without any reason. It is submitted that there is no specific allegation against the petitioner of any assault. It is also submitted that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent. This is also not in dispute that the injuries have been found to be simple in nature.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submission so made on behalf of the petitioner, this application is allowed. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patna, in connection with Parsa Bazar P.S. Case No. 229 of 2016, subject to the condition laid down under Section

438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself/herself before the police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his/her part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his/her bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
