ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 24-05-2017

From the show cause filed by the respondents, it appears that the order passed on 11.07.2013 (Annexure-A) in the matter has been decided, and the claim of the petitioner has been redressed. It is reported at the time of hearing by learned counsel for the petitioner that he has been instructed to report that the petitioner has since been expired and he has no instruction from the legal heir.

That being the position, this application is disposed of in view of the situation reported by the respondents and in case the legal representative Rakesh Nath Sahay has any grievance in the matter, he may seek appropriate remedy permissible in law.
