ORAL ORDER

3 18-01-2017 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Kako P.S.
Case No. 61/2016, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304B, 201 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleged that her sister was married to the petitioner about six years ago, but the husband of his sister was demanding a motorcycle and he also threatened her to kill. On 27.04.2016, the informant got information that his sister was killed and her dead-body was disposed of.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the wife of the petitioner died on account of ill-ness. Immediately after three months of the occurrence, the petitioner was married with the sister of the deceased. The informant also filed compromise petition, but it appears that the informant made specific allegation that the petitioner killed his wife and disposed of her dead-body. Petitioner is the husband of the deceased.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner above-named on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
