CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI
SHARAN SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 02-08-2017 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The Opposite parties are accused in Warisaliganj P. S. Case No. 181 of 2015, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341,323,325,307,379/34 of the Indian Penal Code. They have been allowed anticipatory bail by an order, dated 14.08.2015, passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Nawada.

This application has been filed seeking cancellation of their bail nearly after two years after passing of the order on 24.07.2017.

It is contended on behalf of the petitioner that the Court below took minor contradictions available in the First Information

Report for the purpose of release of the Opposite parties on bail. According to him, the Opposite parties have criminal antecedent, which they had apparently suppressed while seeking anticipatory bail.

Normally, bail granted to a person made accused in a criminal case needs be cancelled, if there is material to show misuse of privilege of bail by him or if he attempts to influence the witnesses or tamper with the evidence.

Though there is statement in the application that the Opposite parties are threatening the petitioner and the petitioner has informed the police in this regard, this application for cancellation of bail filed nearly two years after grant of bail, to me does not appear to be bona fide. No valid ground for cancellation of bail is available

This application has no merit and it is, accordingly, dismissed.
