The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Ariyari P.S.Case no.116 of 2017 registered for offences punishable under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioner, as per FIR, is that in the night when the informant awoke at 3.00 A.M. he saw the petitioner in the Verandah and later on he found that Rs.6,000/- has been stolen from his house.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent and he has been falsely implicated in this case because some money of the petitioner was due with the informant.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned court below within a period of four weeks and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the learned court below without being prejudiced by the order of this Court, if possible on the same day.

With the aforesaid observation, this application is disposed of.
