CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHWANI KUMAR SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 28-03-2017

In all these applications, the grievance of the petitioners is common. Hence, these applications have been heard together and are being disposed of by a common order.

2. The petitioners are aggrieved because of non-payment of deducted amount of dearness allowance which was deposited in their G.P.F. account from 01.04.1981 till 31.03.1998.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned counsel appearing for the respondents are in agreement that the case of the petitioners stands on the same footing to that of one Rajendra Prasad whose application was disposed of by this Court on 22.12.2015 in C.W.J.C. No. 5506 of 2014 on the following terms:

“In view of the fact that the dues relates to 1981-87 and are being sought to be paid only in the end of 2015, in the opinion of this Court, the petitioner is entitled to payment of interest. Accordingly, let the payment be made with 6% simple interest which shall be paid to the petitioner within two weeks from today by the District Education Officer, Nalanda who is present in the Court as well as the District Programme Officer (Establishment), Nalanda.”

4. With consent of the parties these applications are also disposed of on the same terms with the only change that the respondents shall make the payment with interest within six weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of the order.
