The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Baliya P.S. Case No.180 of 2017 registered under Sections 302 and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is that the informant Sharmila Devi performed the marriage of her daughter Rupam Kumari with Shambhu Yadav, son of Balo Yadav, in village-Pokhariya, P.S. Baliya, District-Begusarai before 8 years ago. Out of their wedlock, four female children were born out but out of them two died. Thereafter, the daughter of the informant was being tortured for demand of Rs.4,00,000/- from her father to get the same deposited in the bank due to giving birth of only female child. While the panchayati was arranged but despite that the daughter of the informant was being tortured. On 20.07.2017 at about 10.00 A.M., the informant made call to the father-in-law of her daughter to talk with her daughter but he made pretext. The informant raised suspicion and came to the matrimonial house of her daughter where she came to know that her daughter and one Natini have been killed by administering poison and the treatment of her one Natini is being going on at Ballia. Thereafter, the informant went there and found the health of her one Natini not well.

Learned Senior Counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that, in fact, the petitioners are Gotani, mother-in-law and brother-in-law of the deceased, the daughter of the informant, respectively. Due to quarrel in the family, the deceased, the daughter of the informant, the deceased and her husband mixed the poison in the meal and serve the meal to all but one daughter of the deceased, the daughter of the informant, did not take the meal whereas the deceased, the daughter of the informant, her husband and one daughter took the meal, due to that reason, the deceased, the daughter of the informant, and her one daughter died while the husband of the deceased, the daughter of the informant, and one daughter of the deceased, the daughter of the informant, were survived.
