ORAL ORDER

2 21-09-2017 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Mahishi P.S.
Case No. 13 of 2017 under Section 307 and other sections of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleged that the petitioner sold his two sesame trees and when the son of the informant went to enquire, the petitioner repeatedly stabbed him. When the grandson of the informant went to save his father, the petitioner also imputably stabbed the grandson of the informant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and the informant are co-sharers. On account of land dispute the occurrence took place, but, it appears from the perusal of the injury report that Akhilesh Kumar Mishra and his got two stab injuries each. The petitioner is alleged to have repeatedly stabbed Akhilesh Kumar Mishra and his son, Keshav Kumar Mishra, and the corresponding injuries were found on the vital parts of the body.

Considering the allegation, made against the petitioner, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

The prayer for anticipatory bail is rejected.

If the petitioner surrenders before the Court below and prays for regular bail that may be considered, on it's own merit, without being prejudiced of this order.
