ORAL ORDER

[illegible]

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Katoriya P.S. Case No. 116 of 2017, registered under Sections 353 and 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code, pending in the court of the A.C.J.M-I, Banka.

The accusation is that the informant Ranjeet Kumar Sah being the Process Server, Civil Court, Banka had gone to serve the notice of Family Court, Banka in the house of Sarita Devi in village Katoriya, mother of Sita Devi was present there and she asked to wait and accordingly, he waits there for two hours. In the meantime, four persons came boarding on white colour Maruti Car in drunken stage and asked him to endorse that there is no trace, when informant made protest and refused to make the note about no trace of Sarita Devi then all the four persons dashed him and tried to torn the notice, but anyhow he saved the notice. On enquiry, he came to know that petitioners was the person, who tried to snatch the notice and he would identify the other two persons on seeing them again.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation against the petitioners, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, their prayer for grant of anticipatory bail stands rejected. The petitioners is directed to surrender before the trial Court within six weeks and pray for regular bail, which would be considered by the trial Court in accordance with law without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
