CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

7 22-11-2017 Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

Petitioner apprehends arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 468 (C) of 2015 (Tr. No. 2430 of 2016) registered for the offence punishable under section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that petitioner is the husband of the complainant. He never demanded any dowry nor tortured her. He is still desirous of living with the complainant for which he has filed a case for restitution of conjugal rights before the concerned Family Court.
He is ready to keep his wife with full owner and dignity.

Learned Addl. P.P. appearing for the State opposes the prayer for bail submits that petitioner being the husband is very much responsible for maintaining and keeping his wife with full owner and dignity, in which he failed. There are allegations against him.

Considering the nature of allegations levelled, the materials available on record and the submissions advanced on behalf of the parties, this Court does not find it to be a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The same is, therefore, rejected.
