CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date: 01-08-2017

In this Public Interest Litigation filed, petitioner wants this Court to take note of the concern expressed by the petitioner with regard to deteriorating condition in the Education Department, and direct the Bihar School Examination Board to conduct proper investigation and grant recognition to Institutes after following due process of law and thereafter to hold examinations properly and to go away with all illegalities.

Taking note of the manner in which the petition has been filed and the grievance canvassed, which is nothing but an effort on the part of the petitioner to change the system of education in the State of Bihar and take steps for filling up all the vacant posts, this Court cannot take judicial notice, without there being any specific instance or issue to be addressed. Even otherwise, General observations, as prayed for, are made from time to time by this Court.

In case the petitioner is aggrieved, he may approach this Court citing specific instances or irregularities, in an appropriate proceeding.

With the aforesaid, this application is disposed of.
