The petitioner seeks bail in a case for the offences punishable under sections 448, 341, 323, 504 and 364/34 of the I.P.C

The petitioner is named in the First Information Report but only on the basis of suspicion on the ground that on succeed to trace him out, they threatened the informant to teach a lesson to her son and since then her son was found missing.

Submission is of false implication and according to the prosecution case itself, when the petitioner and others went at the house of the informant, the informant disclosed that her son

Misc. No. 31524 of 2015 by order dated 13.08.2015, vide Annexure-2 and further co-accused Devkali Devi and other co-accused have been allowed pre-arrest bail and as such the petitioner who is suffering in custody since 15.02.2017 also deserves sympathetic consideration.

The learned A.P.P. submits that Laddu Dhangar has already been allowed bail.

In the facts and circumstances as stated above, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of C.J.M.
