CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

7. 20-01-2017 Heard Sri Pawan Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Ram Naresh Singh, learned counsel, who has appeared on notice on behalf of opposite party no. 2/husband of the petitioner.

The petitioner has approached this Court under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, with a prayer to direct for transferring the Matrimonial Case No. 1229 of 2013 from the court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Begusarai to the court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Madhepura.

In this case, earlier by order dated 08-12-2014, while directing for issuance of notice to opposite party no. 2, this Court had directed for staying further proceeding in matrimonial case.

On notice, the opposite party no. 2 has appeared through his counsel.

It was complained by learned counsel for opposite party no. 2/husband that the petitioner herself has voluntarily left the place of her husband and opposite party no. 2, being husband, is interested to live with the petitioner and keep her, as wife, with full respect and dignity.

Learned counsel for the petitioner tried to persuade the court that it would be difficult for the petitioner to regularly attend the proceeding in a court, which is far away from Madhepura.

However, considering the fact that husband has filed a case for restitution of conjugal right, it is evident that husband is interested to live with the petitioner and as such, I do not find any ground to interfere with the matter.

The petition stands dismissed.
