CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR
JHA
ORAL ORDER

4 04-04-2017 Heard both sides.

The petitioner seeks bail in Rauta P.S. case No. 46 of 2016 under Section 366, 504, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.
Later on Sections 302, 201 of the IPC were also added.

The informant alleged that his daughter was married to the petitioner. The petitioner called his daughter and thereafter his daughter became traceless. After three days of the occurrence, beheaded dead body of his daughter was recovered from a pond.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no eye witness of the occurrence. The petitioner, after marriage with the deceased, went outside his house to earn his livelihood and after return he found his wife missing. The petitioner went to the house of his in-laws and that is why the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the case but from perusal of the records, it appears that it was the petitioner who called his wife and thereafter wife of the petitioner became traceless and only three days thereafter beheaded dead body of wife of the petitioner was recovered from a pond.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
