CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V. NATH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 17-07-2017

Heard Mr.Jitendra Prasad Singh, learned counsel appearing for the appellant.

The plaintiff is the appellant in this appeal against the judgment and decree of affirmance dismissing the suit.

The plaintiff filed the suit claiming declaration of title on the basis of adverse possession. Both the courts below have come to the concurrent finding that the plaintiff has failed to prove his claim of adverse possession in accordance with law by cogent evidence. The courts below have taken into notice the deposition of the plaintiff wherein he has been unable to even disclose the name of the true owner of the suit land or even the length and breadth of the suit land. It has also been taken into notice by the appellate court below that the plaintiff has failed to prove the khatian of the suit land. The conclusions by both the courts below are based upon the scrutiny of evidence on record and this Court has not been persuaded to find any perversity or unreasonableness in this case.

Therefore, this Court does not find any substantial question of law arising for consideration in this appeal, which is, accordingly, dismissed.
