The prosecution case, as lodged by the Drug Inspector, is that on information that one person is practicing medicine without any valid licence, raid was conducted, medicines were seized and one patient Mangal was being treated for burn injury.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that he is innocent, not a doctor but has taken six months training in first-aid from Society for social Health Care, Patna which certificate is Annexure-2 to this application, had medicines and injections relating to first-aid and the patients were given first-aid and change of bandage. He further submits that the chart enclosed of the medicines found in the premises does not contain any narcotic but are used in first-aid.

However, learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail.
