CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

4. 17-04-2017 Heard Sri Nand Kishore Prasad Sinha, learned counsel for the petitioner. None appeared on behalf of State.

The petitioner has approached this Court invoking its writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, with a prayer to quash a panel of daily-wages Class IV employees, which was prepared in the year 2008.

It was submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that earlier also, petitioner had approached this Court by filing a writ petition, which was disposed of on 09-09-2005, with an observation that respondent no. 2 may consider the case of the petitioner alongwith others regarding inclusion of his name in the district panel. It has been claimed that even after order of this Court, his case was not considered as per his claim.

In this case, a counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondents, wherein, it has been indicated that after cancelling all earlier advertisements, fresh advertisement, vide Advertisement No. 1 of 2013-14 was already published.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has also filed reply to the counter affidavit and submits that the petitioner has already crossed age limit.

Considering the fact that life of panel was only for one year as well as in view of fact disclosed in the counter affidavit that fresh advertisement was already published, vide Advertisement No. 1 of 2013-14, there is no reason to pass any positive order in favour of the petitioner.

The writ petition stands disposed of.
