CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

4 20-01-2017 Sri J.S. Arora, learned counsel appearing on behalf of Opp.Party/husband of the petitioner, in presence of Mr.

S.M.Ashraf, learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, submits that since both parties have filed divorce case at two different places, it is evident that both parties are adamant for dissolution of marriage.

In that view of the matter, it would appropriate to dispose of the present petition with observation that both parties may approach the Family Court, Bhagalpur for mutual consent dissolution of their marriage. If such petition is filed jointly, the Court expects that the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Bhagalpur may take appropriate decision in accordance with law

without any delay.

It goes without saying that till filing of the joint petition before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Bhagalpur, the proceeding in Matrimonial Case no.51 of 2012 pending in the court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Khagaria shall remain stayed.

Mr. Ashraf, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instruction, undertakes that the petitioner will not take any step in Divorce Case, which has been filed by her in the court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Bhagalpur till dissolution of their marriage by joint petition.

The petition stands disposed of.
