CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL ORDER

3 01-07-2017 While disposing of the writ petition on 22nd January, 2007, respondents were directed to consider the case of the petitioner for regularisation in accordance to the law laid down in the case of Secretary, State of Karnataka and others vs. Umadevi (3) and others, (2006) 4 SCC 1 and take a decision. From the show cause filed by the respondents and the orders Annexure-A series filed therewith, it is seen that after scrutiny of the matter for the reasons as are indicated therein, the claim of the petitioner has been rejected finding him ineligible for regularisation.

That being so, no further indulgence in this contempt proceedings is called for. In case, the petitioner feels that the consideration has not been made properly or the claim has been rejected on improper consideration, liberty shall be available to the petitioner to challenge the same afresh in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid, for the present, finding no indulgence made into the matter, the application stands disposed of.
