Allegation against the petitioner is of assaulting the deceased by arrows and there is also allegation against the several other accused persons of assaulting.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that though there is allegation of assault by arrow against the petitioner and there is also allegation of assault by several other accused persons by arrows and other arms whereas there are only Heard learned A.P.P. and the learned counsel for the informant. They have opposed the prayer for bail.

Having heard both sides and in view of facts and circumstances, at this stage, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner but once the charge is framed against the petitioner, the learned trial court shall release the petitioner in connection with Raniganj P.S.Case no.323 of 2016, to his own satisfaction with condition that he shall co-operate in disposal of the trial.
