It is submitted on behalf of the petitioners that according to the complaint petition itself, the petitioners have taken money from the Opposite Party No.2, they have deposited the same in the account and now the liability of the petitioners has expired as they have deposited the amount. As such no case is made out against these petitioners.

Heard learned A.P.P. also as well as the learned counsel for the informant.

The learned counsel for the informant has submitted that the petitioners have taken money from the complainant on the ground that they will deposit the same but after one year they evading and not returning the money to the complainant, as such it is the petitioners who are responsible for all the acts.

Having heard both sides. In view of the facts as stated above, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, let the petitioners surrender before the court below and make prayer for regular bail, which will be decided on its merit by the court below without being prejudiced of the order of this Court.
