CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH

ORAL ORDER

3 16-02-2017 By order passed in the writ proceedings, which attained finality, the University was under a liability, as per their own notification, to pay the balance of arrears of pension by 31st of March, 2015. Under other provisions, they were liable to pay the financial effect of merger of D.A. with effect from 01.01.2005 to 31.03.2007, when the revisions were made effective. This not having been done, in subsequent analogous contempt proceedings, it was directed that those sums would be paid along with interest for delayed payment and delayed compliance of the Court's order at the rate of 6% per annum.

In these three cases counsel for the petitioners agree to the submission of the counsel for the University that so far as arrears of pension and merger of D.A. are concerned, they have now been paid. So far as delayed payment interest is concerned, the same has not been paid.

Learned counsel for the University undertakes on behalf of the University that delayed payment interest would be paid to the petitioners of these three cases within a period of two months from today, failing which the Vice-chancellor and Registrar of the Magadh University would be liable to be proceeded in contempt straightway. No further extension of any excuse will be granted. While making the payments, the University would have to disclose the calculations so that an ordinary person can understand the same and understand what he is getting.

With these observations, these three cases stand disposed of.
