Heard learned APP and learned counsel for the informant also. They have opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

Having heard both sides and considering the fact that petitioners are father-in-law and mother-in-law of the victim and though there is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioners, let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender in the court below within four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gaya, in connection with Civil Lines P.S.Case No. 235 of 2016, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the conditions that one of the bailors should be a local person having sufficient immoveable properties within the jurisdiction of the court concerned and further the petitioners will co-operate in the investigation and make themselves available before the police/court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on their part to appear before the court on two consecutive dates, except showing some genuine ground, their bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
