CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 16-03-2017

The order passed in the writ petition was to the effect that the undisputed amount payable to the petitioner on superannuation should be paid.

The amount in question which was undisputed has already been paid.

The petitioner by filing rejoinder and supplementary affidavit has brought on record various claims. However, these claims have not been adjudicated and without adjudication of these claims no further direction for payment can be issued in this contempt proceeding.

Accordingly, considering the fact that the undisputed amount has already been paid, no case is made out for proceeding further in the matter. Liberty is available to the petitioner to claim the disputed amount by raising a claim initially with the department and thereafter before an appropriate forum in accordance with law.

The Contempt Application stands disposed of.
