ORAL ORDER

2 06-07-2017

Heard the parties.

This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Chand P.S. Case No. 60 of 2017, disclosing offences under Sections 467, 468, 469, 471, 472, 365, 420 and 120-B/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is purchaser of some land from one Parmila Devi, which said Parmila Devi had purchased from the father of the informant. The vendor is traceless. With the suspicion that the persons, who purchased lands, belonging to the informant's father, might be involved in his disappearance and killing too, an FIR has been registered.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that there is no chance of the petitioner absconding from the course of investigation or trial, if he is directed to be released on anticipatory bail.

Considering the submission, as above, this application is allowed. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kaimur at Bhabua, in connection with Chand P.S. Case No. 60 of 2017, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself/herself before the police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on his/her part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his/her bail bond shall be liable to be cancelled.
