SHARAN SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 20-07-2017 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Barauni P.S. Case NO. 344 of 2016, disclosing offences under Sections 379,427 of the Indian Penal Code.

The occurrence relates of theft of the entire ATM machine by the unknown criminals after uprooting the same. The petitioner's complicity has surfaced in course of the investigation.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that he resides in Delhi and he has been wrongly implicated in the present case.

Be that as it may, considering the seriousness of the offence having grave consequences, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.

This application is rejected.

The petitioner is directed to surrender before the Court below within four weeks from today and seek regular bail, if so advised. If he does so, his application for regular bail shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by rejection of the present application for grant of anticipatory bail by this Court.
